Subject: Hotels in Rome and Bologna

Mark, this is how I believe the room needs will break down.

Ex. 7(c) and Ex. 7(c) will fly over with Millan and will remain in Rome - and fly back with the Administrator.

Ex. 7(c)

They will fly over with the Administrator and I believe (they are exploring the options now) they will make their way from the airport in Rome to a train station to catch the high speed train to Bologna. I think it makes more sense just to push thru and end up in Bologna. If it's just not do-able - we'd be looking at one night in Rome with a departure the next morning for Bologna.

They will depart from Bologna enroute the United States on the day after the Administrator returns to Rome. Unless there is a flight option for them on the same day, which is doubtful depending on when he leaves on the train for Rome.

Ex. 7(c) will of course mirror the Administrator.
